responsible service of alcohol

We would like to draw your attention to the Liquor Act of 1992 in regards to responsible service of alcohol

The Act states "All licensees, nominees and staff of licensed premises have a responsibility to ensure that liquor is sold and supplied to patrons in a responsible manner"

Further, it is an offence to supply liquor, allow liquor to be supplied or consumed by a person who is under 18 years of age, or who is unduly intoxicated or disorderly

The Gold Coast Convention and Exhibition Centre is committed to patron care and the responsible service of alcohol; therefore, we appreciate your support throughout your event

important information

All reservations and agreements are made upon and are subject to the rules and regulations of the Gold Coast Convention and Exhibition Centre, and the following conditions apply:

1. All prices are current at the time/date of publication, however the GCCEC reserves the right to change prices and content without notice due to market conditions
2. A minimum surcharge of $250.00 is applicable for functions of less than 50 guests
3. Should alcoholic beverage sales fail to exceed $350.00, a $100.00 labour surcharge will be applicable
4. Should a 50/50 alternate drop menu be required a surcharge of $3.50 per course is applicable. Please discuss your requirements with your Event Manager
5. Labour charges will apply for each additional hour, or part there of, that a function continues after midnight. Or when a function extends after midnight, a labour charge of $4.00 per guest per hour or per part hour is applicable. The charge will be calculated on the confirmed original number of guests
6. Minimum guaranteed number of guests must be specified by the client 72 hours prior to the function. If numbers decrease within the 72 hour period, there will be no reduction in cost
7. A 25% surcharge on total food and beverage may be applicable to functions held on Public Holidays. (See your Event Manager for more information)
8. All function details, final costings etc. should be arranged with the Event Manager for approximately thirty (30) days prior to the date of the function. These details will be entered into an Event Order for confirmation signature by the client
9. The client agrees to begin the function at the scheduled time and agrees to have their guests, invitees and other persons vacate the designated function space at the closing hour indicated
10. The GCCEC cannot accept any responsibility for damage or loss of material, equipment or items brought into the GCCEC prior to, during or after a function
11. Clients must assume full responsibility for any damage caused by guests, invitees, contractors or other persons. Responsibility for arranging appropriate insurance lies with the client and must include the provisions as stipulated in the GCCEC Event Contract
12. Our policy does not allow for food and beverage to be brought onto the premises. This applies to clients, guests and other persons
13. All rates are quoted in Australian dollars and are inclusive of Goods and Services Tax (GST)
