5. All items being delivered to GCCEC must have a completed and attached GCCEC Delivery Label.
6. Situations that involve the delay in unloading due to a requirement for the driver, GCCEC logistics personnel or other to secure or stabilise the load prior to or during unloading may constitute a breach/s under the heavy vehicle national law and the customers Chain of Responsibility.
The customer warrants that;
 - a. It's complied with all applicable laws and regulations relating to the nature, condition, packaging or carriage of the goods about the notification, classification, description, labelling, transport and packaging of the goods and that, given their nature, the goods are packaged in a manner, having regard to their nature, adequate to withstand the ordinary risks of carriage;
 - b. That the goods are accurately described on the consignment note; and
 - c. It is either the owner of the goods and/or the authorised representative of the person owning or having any interest in the goods and it enters into this agreement on its own behalf and/or as authorised representative of that person or persons.
 - d. Dangerous Goods - The customer or the authorised representative shall not deliver in any goods which in GCCEC's sole opinion are or may be explosive, flammable or otherwise dangerous or damaging goods without presenting a full description of those goods and in default of so doing shall be liable for all loss and damage caused thereby.
7. Liability:
 - a. GCCEC shall not be liable for any failure or delay in acceptance and delivery of the goods where such failure or delay is wholly or partly due to any cause or circumstance whatsoever outside the reasonable control of GCCEC including but not limited to war, strikes, lockouts, industrial disputes or arrest, government restrictions or intervention, transport delays, fire, act of God, breakdown of any mechanical equipment including any vehicles, shortage of supplies or labour, storm or tempest, theft, vandalism, riots, civil commotions or accidents of any kind.
 - b. The customer acknowledges that loss or damage are insurable risks and that obtaining insurance is the responsibility of the customer and if they fail or choose not to do so it is at their risk.
8. Indemnity:

The customer or the authorised representative indemnifies GCCEC against all loss, damage and liability suffered by GCCEC (including economic and consequential loss and whether incurred before or after termination or expiration of the agreement) in connection with or arising out of:

 - a. The customer failing to proceed with the delivery;
 - b. Claims by any person against GCCEC or any of their representatives, in respect of personal injury or death, or loss of or damage to any property, arising out of the delivery, storage, movement to stand, other than loss arising as a result of:
 - c. GCCEC breaching the Agreement; or
 - d. The negligence of GCCEC
