SAMPLING OF BEVERAGES AT EXHIBITIONS AND EVENTS

MANDATORY REQUIREMENTS

All requests are subject to approval by GCCEC and will be confirmed with written communication.

Items being sampled and/or sold must be related to the exhibitor's core business.

Samples must be served in sample serves no greater than:

1. Non - Alcoholic Beverages – 100ml
2. Beer – 50ml
3. Wine – 30ml
4. Spirits – 10ml

Samples are to be offered free of charge.

The Office of Liquor and Gaming Queensland specifically requires the following for the sale and/or sampling of alcohol within an event:

- a. All exhibitors must be the holder of a current Liquor or Wine Producers Licence issued in Queensland or another Australian State or Territory.
- b. All persons selling and/or serving alcohol must hold a current nationally recognised Responsible Service of Alcohol (RSA) Certificate issued in Queensland or another Australian State or Territory.

GCCEC practices and promotes RSA on their premises at all times, and will regularly conduct compliance checks.

GCCEC has the right to postpone or terminate the activity or operation without warning if it is deemed to be non-compliant and/or unsafe.

Please note: The above conditions only apply to events where beverages have been approved to be sampled and/or sold by both the event organiser and GCCEC.

TIMETABLE OF ACTION

Before the Event

1. Exhibitors are required to notify GCCEC of their intentions to sell and/or sample alcohol at an event at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the bump-in of the event, to enable GCCEC to apply to the Chief Executive of Liquor and Gaming for approval.
